The sources at the national capital from which the Times usually gleans its news are usually reliable and it is more than probable that the above notation correctly represents present government

What has occurred to bring about this sudden abandonment of "watchful waiting?" Has the president received an unmistakable hint from England and France that we must get busy and straighten out affairs in the south, or they will take matters into their own handst' Under the league of nations, any country, provided it received the sanction of the league, can proceed into Mexico and compel protection for its citizens. The Monroe doctrine, when it comes into conflict with the provisions of the lengue covenant is not worth the paper it is written upon. The president is an intelligent man, and is well aware of the fact that unless we assume reciprocal responsibility under the doctrine, we cannot hope to prevent European interference in accordance with the terms of the league. Greatis the league of ponce. On the very day of its formal presentation service. to the senate comes the official announcement of more wars for the United States. We will not go into Mexico voluntarily, but under Offices: Mizpah Hotel and Richards compulsion from two leading powers in the league of nations. However much one may favor American intervention in Mexico the fact remains that it is proposed to use our armies and navy as the mere tool of England and France. Incidentally an American life may be saved, but that, in the mind of the president, is of secondary importance, if we are to believe the story in the New York

A London elergyman says the world is going to come to an end this year. With its heart broken, as Mr. Wilson says, there's nothing for it to do but get a hoss pistol and end it all.
